WELCOME

Thank you for thinking of us

A place for teams to step away from the office and do their best thinking.

Thank you for your interest in Riverside Hall. Our building began life in 1912 as a cloth mill. Today, its brick walls and tall windows hold three bright event spaces, a kitchen run by our own chefs, and a terrace that looks straight onto the river.

We host team meetings, training days, offsites, product launches, and private celebrations for groups of 6 to 100 people. Every booking has a named event coordinator who looks after you from your first call to the moment your last guest leaves.

This pack explains our spaces, packages, food, equipment, and booking terms. If you have a question that isn't answered here, please call or email us. We reply to every message within one working day.

Warm regards,

Elena Ruiz

ABOUT US

About Riverside Hall and getting here

Riverside Hall sits on the east bank of the river, a short walk from downtown Columbus. The building was restored in 2019. We kept the original brick, timber beams, and arched windows, and added modern heating, air conditioning, and fast Wi-Fi throughout.

Getting here

- Address: 480 Millrace Lane, Columbus, OH 43215. The main entrance faces Millrace Lane.
- By bus: Several downtown bus routes stop at Front Street and Millrace Lane, a two-minute walk from our door.
- On foot: Downtown is about 15 minutes away along the riverside trail.
- By taxi or rideshare: Use the drop-off point at the main entrance on Millrace Lane.
- Arrival: The building opens 30 minutes before your booking starts. Our host will meet your group at reception.

Access for everyone

All three event spaces are on the first floor and have step-free access from the main entrance. There is an elevator to our office on the second floor, accessible restrooms on every floor, and a hearing loop in the Riverside Room. Please tell us about any access needs when you book, so we can plan your day around them.

OUR SPACES

Our spaces at a glance

Three spaces, each set up the way your group works best.

The table below shows the largest number of guests each space holds in each layout. Choose a layout that suits your day, and we'll set the room before you arrive. You can change the layout up to seven days before your event at no charge.

Space	Theater (rows)	Classroom (desks)	Boardroom (one table)	Round tables (groups of 8)	Standing reception
Riverside Room (main room)	80	40	24	40	100
Willow Room	20	12	12	Not available	25
Garden Terrace (May to September)	Not available	Not available	Not available	24	60

Which layout should I choose?

- Theater: rows of chairs facing the screen. Best for talks and presentations.
- Classroom: desks in rows. Best for training where people take notes or use laptops.
- Boardroom: one large table. Best for discussions where everyone needs to see each other.
- Round tables: tables of up to eight. Best for workshops, group exercises, and offsites, because each table can work as its own team.
- Standing reception: high tables and a few chairs. Best for drinks, launches, and networking.

> Good to know
> Groups of 20 or more usually choose the Riverside Room, because it is the only indoor space that holds groups that size at tables. The Willow Room works well as a breakout room alongside it.

THE MAIN ROOM

The Riverside Room

Our largest space, with six tall windows looking onto the river.

The Riverside Room is our main room. At 60 by 40 feet (about 18 by 12 meters), it holds up to 40 guests at round tables, or 24 around a single boardroom table. Natural light fills the room all day, and blackout blinds close at the touch of a button when you need the screen.

The plan shows the room set with five round tables of eight.

Feature	Details
Size	2,400 sq ft (about 223 square meters), ceiling height 16 ft (4.9 meters)
Screen and sound	Built-in projector, 12 ft screen, ceiling speakers, two wireless microphones
Light and air	Six river-facing windows, blackout blinds, air conditioning, and heating
Power	Floor sockets under every table position, with USB-C chargers
Food service	Lunch buffet served at the side of the room, so your group doesn't need to move

MORE SPACES

The Willow Room and the Garden Terrace

The Willow Room

The Willow Room is a quiet, wood-paneled room next to the Riverside Room. It seats up to 12 guests around a boardroom table and has a 65-inch screen with a video-calling camera. Many groups book it as a breakout room, or for a small leadership meeting before a larger event.

- Seats 12 at a boardroom table, or 20 in theater rows
- 65-inch screen with camera, microphone, and speaker for video calls
- Whiteboard wall and a cabinet of sticky notes and markers
- Room hire only: US$70 per hour, with a minimum of two hours

The Garden Terrace

The Garden Terrace sits beside the river, under a retractable glass roof. From May to September, it is available for lunches, receptions, and evening drinks. It seats 24 guests at round tables or holds 60 for a standing reception. If it rains, we close the roof. If it's too cold, we move your group indoors at no extra charge.

- Available from May 1 to September 30
- Seats 24 at round tables, or 60 standing
- Can be added to a Day Meeting Package for lunch, at no extra charge, when it's available
- Heaters and blankets on cool evenings

> Planning an offsite between October and April?
>
> The Garden Terrace is closed from October 1 to April 30. During those months, lunch is served in your meeting room, or in the Willow Room if you would like a change of scene.

PACKAGES

Meeting packages and rates

Dietary needs and allergies
