Commercial use checklist

Work through the five questions in order before you sell or publish AI-made work for a business. If an answer sends you to STOP, fix that step before you go on. This isn't legal advice.

The work: _____

1 Does it copy or closely resemble an existing work, character, logo, or brand?

☐ Yes ☐ No Yes = STOP. Don't use it. No = go on.

Reverse image search or phrase search done on: _____

2 Does it show a real, identifiable person?

☐ Yes ☐ No Yes = STOP until you have their permission. No = go on.

Permission obtained from (if needed): _____

3 Do the tool's terms allow commercial use on your plan?

☐ Yes ☐ No No = STOP. Upgrade, use another tool, or don't use it commercially. Yes = go on.

Terms checked on (date) and what they say: _____

4 Do you need to own it exclusively, such as a logo or mascot?

☐ Yes ☐ No Yes = add substantial human work, or have it redrawn. No = go on.

What I'll add or change by hand: _____

5 Do you need to disclose that AI was used?

☐ Yes ☐ No Yes = add a disclosure (Chapter 6.6). No = note why not.

Rule that applies, or my disclosure wording: _____

My record of how the work was made

Tool and plan: _____

Date made: _____

Main prompts (or where they're saved): _____

What I changed or added by hand: _____

My decision, and the date: _____

Keep this record with the work. Tool terms change, so keep a copy or the date of the terms you checked.
